

Confidential resources:

YWCA of Western Massachusetts-YWCA Springfield MA

YWCA offers comprehensive services to survivors, including short-term psychoeducation and 1:1 and group counseling; a 24/7/365 bilingual sexual assault hotline; emergency shelter, transitional housing, and navigation assistance within systems addressing housing and homelessness; and clinical services. These services may be used by staff, faculty, and students at Elms College.

Phone numbers: 413-733-7100 (TTY/V), 800-796-8711 (TTY/V), Llamano: Spanish-language 800-223-5001

Elms College Counseling Center – 413-265-2288-

The Elms College Counseling Center is identified as the Confidential Resource Provider under the Massachusetts Title IX Regulations, and is located at 15 Gaylord Street, Chicopee MA, next to the college main campus. The counseling center serves as a free confidential resource and support service for Elms College students. Students may contact the Wellness Center at 413-265-2288 to make an appointment during business hours 8:30-4:30 pm, Monday-Friday.

OTHER CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES

Elms College Student Health Services

(15 Gaylord Street)

Jessie Chenier, Director of the Health Center

413-265-2288

Student Health Services can provide free confidential medical care and referrals for Students to receive follow-up care and screening for sexually transmitted diseases.

Campus Ministry

(Mary Dooley College Center, 1st floor)

Eileen Kirk, Interim Director Campus Ministry

413-265-2468

Campus Ministry staff provide confidential pastoral counseling that affirms the dignity of the victim and helps them work through questions of faith that have arisen as well as emotional support and information about their options. Furthermore, clergy members and members of religious orders also provide confidential pastoral counseling.

College Chaplain

35 Gaylord Street, first floor

Reverend Mark Stelzer, S.Th.D.

413-265-2590

Athletic Trainers

Athletic Trainers who are licensed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and employed by the College to provide first aid and treatment to Student athletes can provide confidential care, support and guidance to Student victims of Sexual Misconduct.