Why am I being asked to complete this form and what are my responsibilities?

Your 2025–2026 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for a process called verification, which requires the Financial Aid Office to collect information from you and your family to compare to the data you reported on your FAFSA. Please provide this completed worksheet, and any financial documentation requested from you below, to the Financial Aid Office within 15 days of receipt. WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both. If you have questions about the verification process or your specific household or financial situation, please contact the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

What are the Financial Aid Office's responsibilities?

The Financial Aid Office will use this worksheet and your financial records will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected or we may ask for additional information.
