

Annual Report 2009-2010

Educating Reflective, Principled, and Creative Learners in the Tradition of the Sisters of St. Joseph

Our mission is to provide academic challenges in a nurturing environment, to enable you to leave Elms College richer than you entered – rooted in faith, educated in mind, compassionate in heart, responsive to civic and social obligations, capable of adjusting to change without compromising principle.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

"Omnia mutantur, nos et mutamur in illis."
"All things change, and we change with them."
—Matthias Borbonius, 16th century Latin poet

The constancy of change is as true today as it was five centuries ago, and, in fact, since the dawn of time. We are reminded of that as we look back over the past year.

This 2009-2010 annual report of the College of Our Lady of the Elms encompasses a time of great change for the college, for me personally, and for the entire Elms College family.

It was the first full year of my tenure as president, and there was much change in our daily operations as we adjusted routines and relationships, and began learning to work together as a team.

It was also a year in which changes in the world beyond the campus forced us to change as well, as the economy sputtered toward recovery and we as an institution continued to regain a more solid financial footing.

As the needs of people in our community have shifted, we have changed the way we "deliver" some of our educational services in order to better meet their needs. We have forged partnerships with Berkshire Medical Center, Westover Air Reserve Base, and Holyoke Community College, and are offering courses at those locations for the convenience of people in those communities. We will continue to reach out to people in other places, always working to extend our hands to those around us who might otherwise not have access to quality Catholic higher education.

We've made these changes – and many others – always in keeping with the charism of our founders, the Sisters of Saint Joseph, and their determination to unite "neighbor with neighbor and neighbor with God."

What has not changed, and will not change, is our commitment -- to our values, our mission, and our students, and our gratitude to those like you who have chosen to be as much a part of our future as they are of our past.

I am deeply grateful for all that you have done and continue to do in your lives and your communities to advance the achievements and impact of Elms College. Your unwavering support allows us to continue our work, which, in whatever form it takes, is unchanging in its belief in service and its reliance on God's grace.

Highlights of 2009-2010

Elms College is rooted in the Catholic intellectual tradition.

It is defined by values, standards, and traditions we have upheld throughout our 82-year history. The activities and achievements of the entire college community demonstrate our commitment to educating reflective, principled, and creative learners in the tradition of the Sisters of Saint Joseph.

Leadership in Action

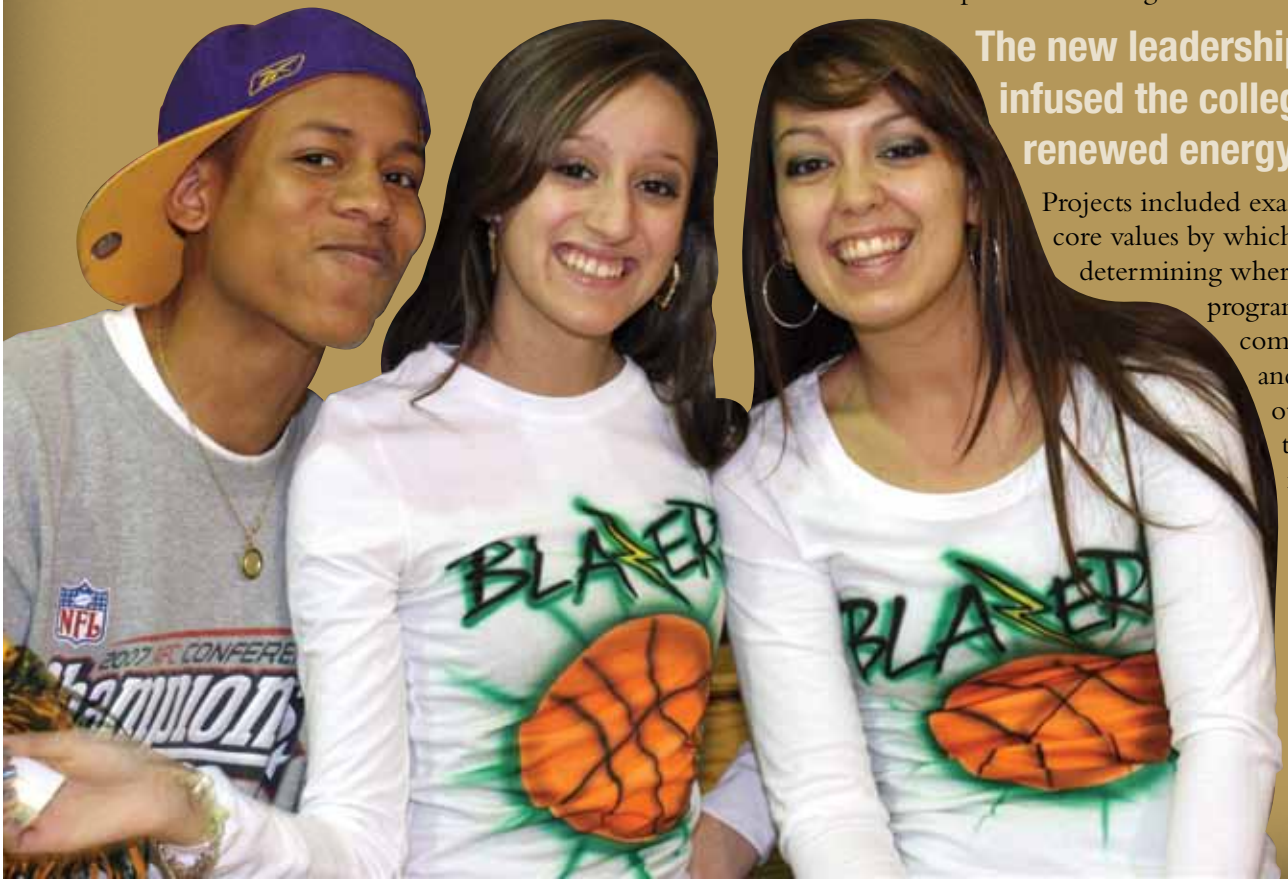

Sister Mary Reap became our 10th president, and immediately began the work of moving the college forward.

October 2009 brought a week of celebration and programs as Sister Mary, who served as president of Marywood University in Pennsylvania for 19 years, was installed in office.

We welcomed 10 new trustees.

The full board of 25 members brings a wealth of experience to the leadership of Elms College.

The new leadership team infused the college with renewed energy.

Projects included examining the core values by which we operate; determining where to expand programs in response to community needs; and strengthening our commitment to our Catholic identity.

Reaffirming Our Catholic Identity

Sister Jane Morrissey with Dorothy Day Program participants.

Our Catholic identity is embedded throughout everything we do.

Empowered by love and faith, Elms College seeks to promote the traditions of our founders, the Sisters of Saint Joseph, through programs that challenge all members of our college community spiritually and ethically.

Our students perform community service in many different ways.

Twenty-four incoming first year students participated in the 2009 Dorothy Day Program, designed to instill the value of service in them from their first day at the Elms. Participants arrive on campus a week early and work on community service projects, learning in the process that they can change the world for the better.

Students often incorporate service projects that deepen their learning.

For the fifth year in a row, business students helped people prepare their income taxes as part of the IRS's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program.

Many of our students went on life-changing mission trips.

In 2009-2010, 42 students traveled to Jamaica, Honduras, West Virginia, and New Orleans to help strangers in need. By reaching out to other cultures, they embrace the possibilities of changes that can be made through their efforts.

The Mary Dooley Lecture Series completed its 24th year.

It brought prominent speakers with diverse religious backgrounds to campus to discuss themes of religious studies and spirituality.

Commitment to Our Community

We continue to extend our hand in a spirit of hospitality.

As always, we are guided by the charism of our founders, the Sisters of Saint Joseph, to "unite neighbor with neighbor, and neighbor with God."

The first graduating class from our RN-to-B.S. completion program at Berkshire Medical Center in Pittsfield.

We reached out geographically to nurses in the Berkshires.

The first 14 students graduated from our RN-to-B.S. completion program at Berkshire Medical Center (BMC) in Pittsfield. Elms faculty taught classes at BMC, making it more accessible to nurses there.

We believe in the value and power of collaboration.

We formed partnerships with the International Language Institute in Northampton to encourage international students to pursue degrees here; and with Holyoke Community College enabling associate's degree graduates to complete their bachelor's degrees from Elms by taking courses on the HCC campus.

We offered Lifelong Learning workshops to our neighbors.

Members of the community were invited to take part in non-credit courses ranging from ballroom dancing to Palestinian culture.

HOLYOKE COMMUNITY COLLEGE & ELMS COLLEGE

We partnered with public and Catholic schools.

Our Education Division offered programs to teachers in Chicopee, Springfield, and the Springfield Diocese to help them increase their knowledge and improve their skills.

We offered classes onsite at Westover Air Reserve Base.

Our faculty taught classes at Westover to accommodate students there from the Community College of the Air Force (CCAF). We were named a Military Friendly School by G.I. Jobs magazine. We participated in the national Yellow Ribbon Program to help students pay for education not covered by the G.I. Bill; and were honored to work with students such as Jerod A. Brammer '10, a decorated veteran who served more than eight years in the Army, including 25 months of combat duty in Iraq and Afghanistan. Jerry completed a bachelor's degree in biology here after his return from active duty.

We cosponsored a benefit at the Basketball Hall of Fame with the Flutie Foundation for Autism.

Using funds raised from benefits like this one, the Doug Flutie, Jr. Foundation for Autism awarded the college a grant to pay for scholarships to our graduate programs in autism spectrum disorders.

Excellence in Academics

David Peters '11, winner of a Grinspoon Entrepreneurial Spirit Award

We are proud of the excellence of our students.

Linnea Guidi, Gianna Gula, and David Peters were named recipients of Grinspoon Entrepreneurial Spirit Awards. They received monetary awards, and displayed and marketed their businesses to more than 300 guests, including local bankers.

Our accounting students excelled in the Stock Market Challenge.

For the fourth year in a row, the Elms team competed against more than 160 finance and accounting professionals, including seasoned bankers, investment managers, and accountants, and placed in the top five finishers.

We are proud of the excellence of our faculty.

In the English Department, professors Tom Cerasulo, Ph.D., and Robert King, Ph.D., published books, and their colleague Dan Chelotti, M.F.A., had six poems published.

The Humanities Division focused on writers.

As the college's Shaughness Family Chair for the Study of the Humanities, Dr. Cerasulo created a visiting writers series, bringing local and national writers to campus to read and discuss their work.

Three members of our faculty earned their doctorates this year.

Nursing professors Cheryl Sheils, Ed.D., R.N, and Janet Moore, Ph.D., as well as Joyce Hampton, Ed.D., professor of English as a second language, all earned their doctorates.

One music professor issued three new recordings.

Christopher Bakriges, Ph.D., also had his research in musical transculturation acknowledged in American and British music journals.

Dear friend of Elms College,

As chair of the board of trustees, it is my honor to present this annual report of donors for 2009-2010.

It has been a notable year in many ways, beginning with the arrival and inauguration of our 10th president, Mary Reap, IHM, Ph.D. Sister Mary's strong and vigorous leadership already has become evident as the college pursues innovative partnerships, physical improvements, and other initiatives. She is supported by the energy, expertise, and vision of the board of trustees, including 10 new members who joined in July 2009.

The president and the trustees may set the tone, but it is the support of all of our alumni and friends that ultimately make our efforts to educate young women and men in the Catholic tradition possible. With your help we have worked to broaden and fulfill our mission and to give our students the knowledge and moral foundation they need to succeed – and to live lives that matter.

The 352 graduates of the class of 2010 exemplify the power and impact of an Elms College education. You will read about four of them in this report: Collette Green '10, a nursing graduate and the first person in her family to go to college, and now working as a registered nurse; Andrew L. Melendez '10, a volunteer at Homework House for all four of his years at Elms, who now works at Homework House and is one of the rare models and mentors who inspires hope among the youth in his city; Tiffany Williams '10, an accounting and management major, whose experience as a student athlete on the softball team taught her about sportsmanship, service, and community; and Peg Sullivan '10, a fifth grade teacher who graduated with a master's in teaching and became a reading specialist at Lincoln School. Collette, Andrew, Tiffany, and Peg remind us of why we persevere, and how our work changes the lives of our students and those whose lives they touch.

As we move forward, we remain mindful of the values on which our founding Sisters of Saint Joseph built this wonderful college. Those values, rooted in our Catholic identity – service, compassion, faith, love, respect, social responsibility, justice, and truth – have been instilled in generations of Elms College alumni, and have done as much to shape our careers and our lives as the excellent education we received here. With your continued support, they will be part of the Elms College experience of the future, as well.

As an alumna myself, I share your pride and loyalty to this wonderful college we know as the Elms. As chair of the board of trustees, and on behalf of everyone at the College of Our Lady of the Elms, I want to express deep appreciation for the support we have received from each of you this year. We rely on your continued generosity, recognizing that it is the key to our ability to continue educating reflective, principled, and creative learners.

Sincerely,

Linda K.C. Mansfield '77
Chair, Board of Trustees

COLETTE GREEN ’10:
AN IMPOSSIBLE DREAM REALIZED, THANKS TO ONE DONOR’S SCHOLARSHIP BEQUEST

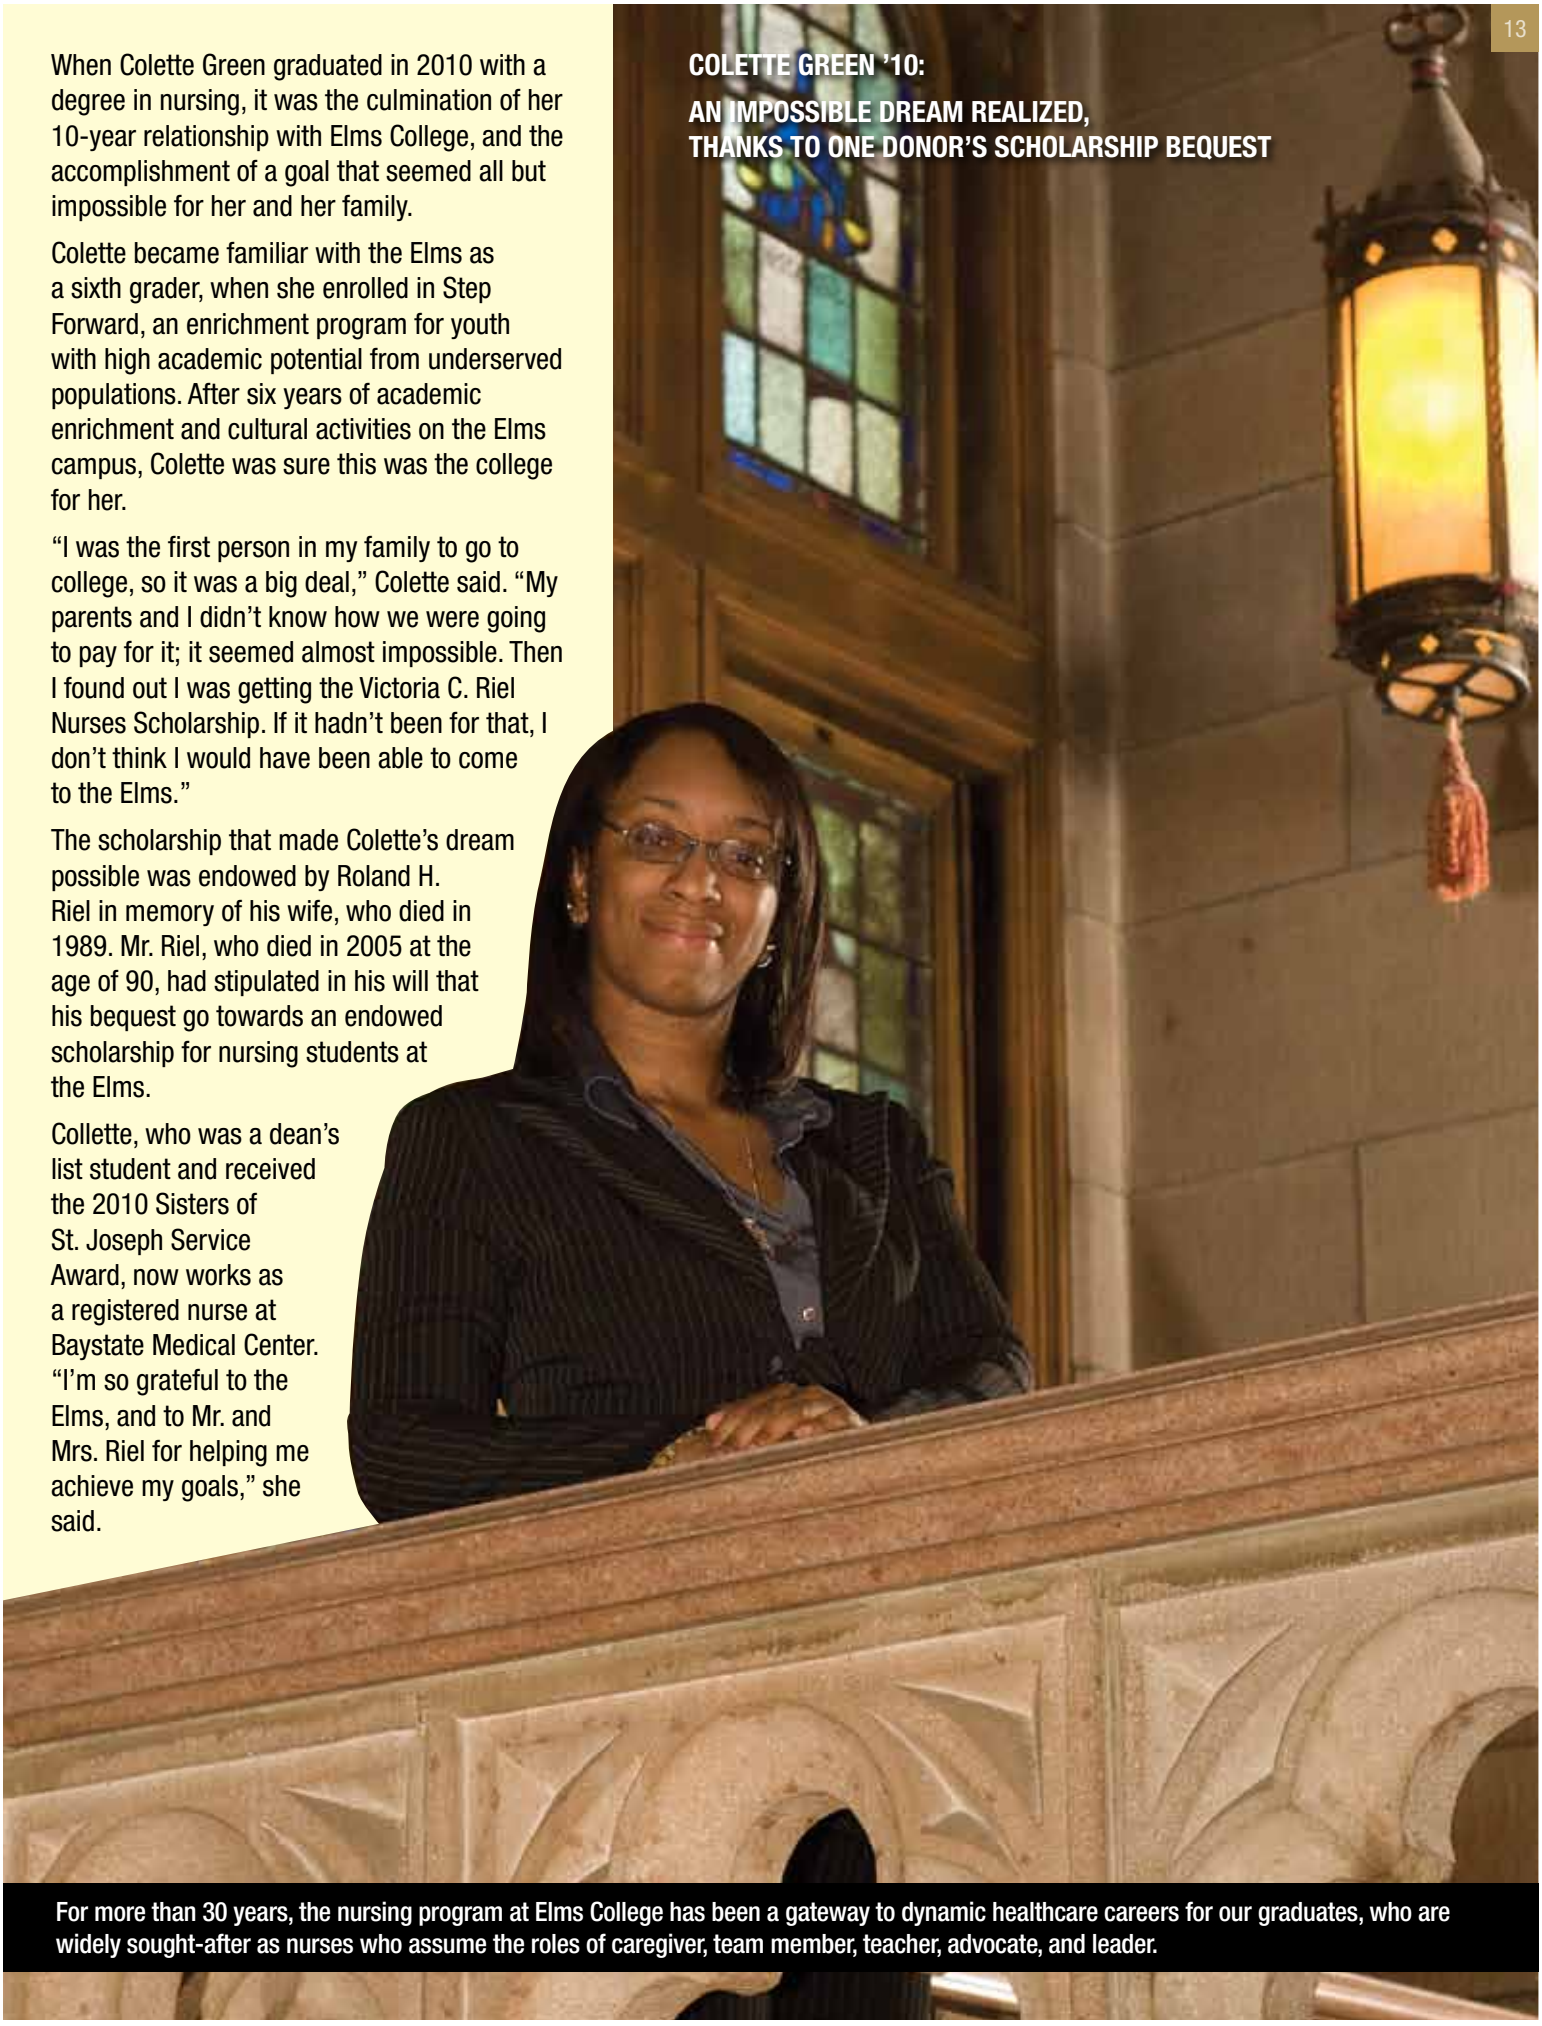

When Colette Green graduated in 2010 with a degree in nursing, it was the culmination of her 10-year relationship with Elms College, and the accomplishment of a goal that seemed all but impossible for her and her family.

Colette became familiar with the Elms as a sixth grader, when she enrolled in Step Forward, an enrichment program for youth with high academic potential from underserved populations. After six years of academic enrichment and cultural activities on the Elms campus, Colette was sure this was the college for her.

“I was the first person in my family to go to college, so it was a big deal,” Colette said. “My parents and I didn’t know how we were going to pay for it; it seemed almost impossible. Then I found out I was getting the Victoria C. Riel Nurses Scholarship. If it hadn’t been for that, I don’t think I would have been able to come to the Elms.”

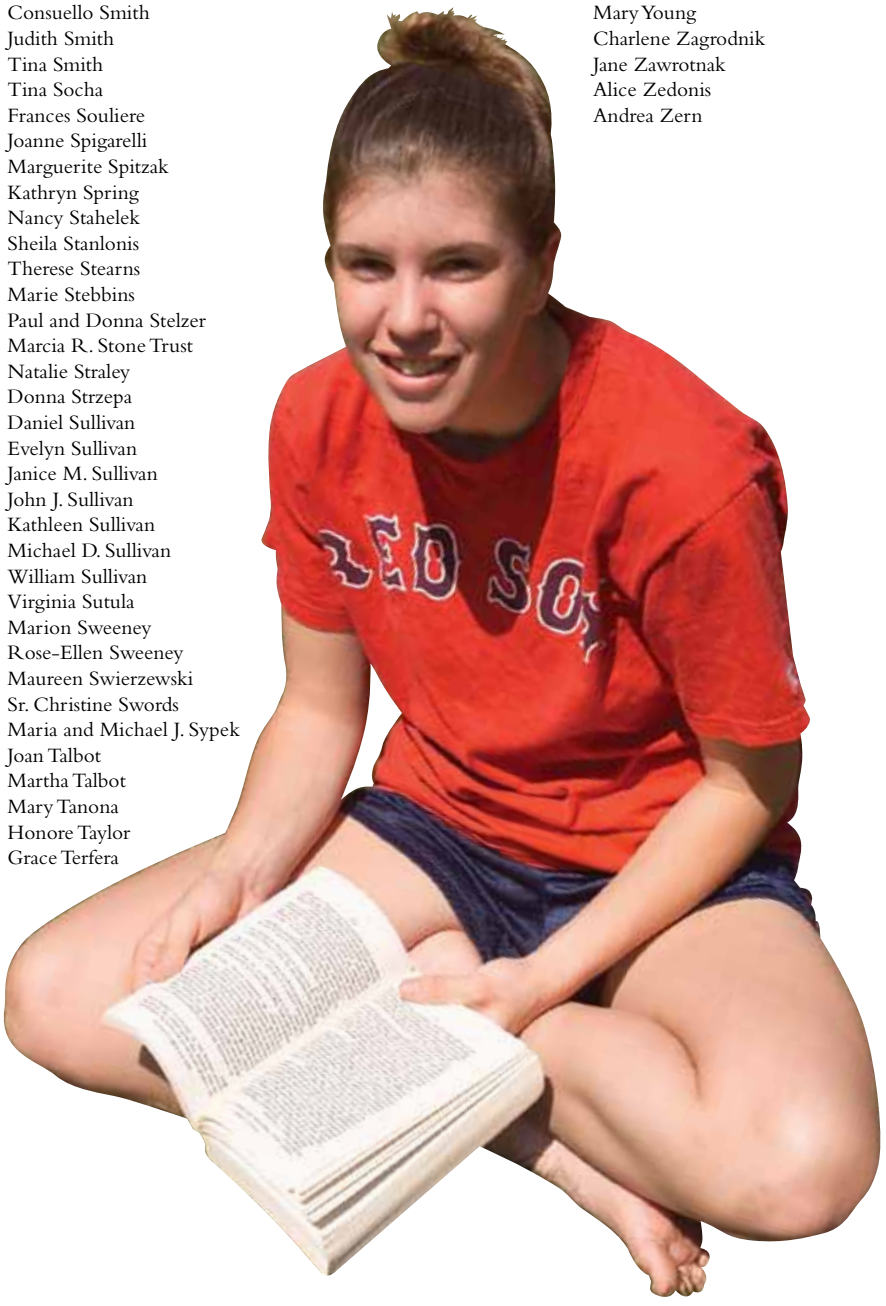

The scholarship that made Colette’s dream possible was endowed by Roland H. Riel in memory of his wife, who died in 1989. Mr. Riel, who died in 2005 at the age of 90, had stipulated in his will that his bequest go towards an endowed scholarship for nursing students at the Elms.

Collette, who was a dean’s list student and received the 2010 Sisters of St. Joseph Service Award, now works as a registered nurse at Baystate Medical Center. “I’m so grateful to the Elms, and to Mr. and Mrs. Riel for helping me achieve my goals,” she said.

For more than 30 years, the nursing program at Elms College has been a gateway to dynamic healthcare careers for our graduates, who are widely sought-after as nurses who assume the roles of caregiver, team member, teacher, advocate, and leader.

ENDOWING A SCHOLARSHIP TO HONOR SISTER JANE MORRISSEY: ANNE MARIE CORRIERI '80 SAYS THANK YOU TO "THIS WOMAN OF FAITH"

Coinciding with her 30th reunion from the Elms, Anne Marie Corrieri '80 and her husband John W. Perrin III of Wilbraham donated $20,000 to endow a scholarship in honor of Jane Morrissey, s.s.j., former Elms faculty member. It is the second scholarship endowed by this teacher of 30 years and her retired police officer husband: the first was in memory of Sister Mary Lou McKinstrie after her death in 2007.

"I had set up a scholarship in memory of Sister Mary Lou when she passed away because she was so special to me. But I felt sad knowing that since she was gone, she wouldn't know how much I appreciated her. It made me start thinking that people should be honored while they are still alive. In that way, Sister Mary Lou guided me to do this for Sister Jane, who means the world to me, and always has.

When I was a student at the Elms, Sister Jane started the Gray House. We walked down there from campus one day, and she said, 'Someday, this is going to be a community house.' It was hard to believe, looking at this burned out wreck. But she made it happen. I was blown away. I recently went to see her Homework House, and it was the same feeling. You can't believe one little lady did all this.

Establishing this scholarship is my way of saying thank you, and to honor Sister Jane for being a woman of faith and showing so many of us how one can dwell in possibilities, follow your heart, and make a positive difference in the lives of others. At least six or seven people have told me how much it meant to them that Sister Jane was being honored in this way. I'm hoping it inspires them to make additional donations to this scholarship, or to start another to honor someone special."

Andrew Melendez '10 was a volunteer at Homework House for all four of his years at the Elms. He now works as outreach director and site supervisor there.

The Jane Morrissey Endowed Scholarship will be awarded to Elms students who volunteer service to the Gray House or Homework House, both founded by Sister Jane. This volunteer service teaches our students that they can positively impact vulnerable populations in our communities, bringing to life the charism of our founders, the Sisters of Saint Joseph, through work that unites "neighbor with neighbor and neighbor with God."

Honorary and Memorial Gifts

Many Elms benefactors choose to make gifts throughout the year in memory of loved family members and friends. Others choose to honor people meaningful in their lives such as former teachers, parents, classmates, children, friends, or family. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of those benefactors in choosing to recognize their loved ones in this way.

For many donors, the thought of providing assistance to an Elms College student is reward enough. But a gift from one anonymous donor had double impact: not only did it help our students gain valuable real-life experience; at the same time it has provided life-changing help to dozens of low-income children who have reading difficulties.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM: VALUABLE EXPERIENCE FOR OUR STUDENTS, AND LIFE-CHANGING HELP FOR LOW-INCOME CHILDREN

The donor made grants to both the Elms, to pay for teachers, and to our partner in the summer reading program, Holy Name School, to provide scholarships for needy students. According to the anonymous donor, she "is grateful to God for the chance to have an immediate and direct impact on the lives of a significant number of our young people."

The summer reading program, which just completed its 20th year, allows students in our master's of teaching program who are seeking licensure as reading specialists to work directly with local children aged six through 15. It provides a wonderful opportunity to supplement their solid classroom learning with valuable hands-on experience, while at the same time giving invaluable help to children who really need it.

"In the summer reading program, I was able to work closely with three children, diagnose and assess them, and work one-on-one with each of them to turn their reading weaknesses into strengths," said Peg Sullivan '10, a fifth grade teacher at Lincoln School in Springfield, who completed her M.A.T. in May. "You just cannot get that experience in a regular classroom."

This is the second year the donor provided these two $20,000 grants for the summer reading program. In the summer of 2010, 60 children participated in the program, and two-thirds of them received financial aid to attend.

"The children I worked with showed significant improvement in reading skills by the end of the program," said Peg, who is now working as a reading specialist. "This will help them throughout their entire lives."

"Thanks to that anonymous donor, we have been able to give assistance to many, many children – some of whom received full scholarships," said Beth Young, Ed.D., education professor and director of the summer reading program. "Those funds have greatly expanded our ability to offer this program to children who desperately need the help, but might not otherwise be able to afford it. We're proud of the fact that we don't exclude any child who needs help."

The Division of Education prepares teachers for licensure at the preschool, elementary, and secondary levels, and in the areas of English as a second language and students with moderate disabilities.

SUPPORTING ATHLETICS:

GIFTS FROM FORMER TRUSTEE JIM SULLIVAN AND HIS WIFE, SALLY, MAKE A DIFFERENCE TO STUDENT ATHLETES

Tiffany Williams ’10, who was a star catcher on the softball team for all four of her years here, was one of 225 student athletes whose college careers were enhanced by their participation in intercollegiate sports at Elms College in 2009-2010.

The state-of-the-art fields on which they compete were completed in 2008 as part of a $1.71 million renovation project made possible by gifts to the athletic program from many donors, including on-going support from Jim Sullivan and his wife, Sally.

An avid sports fan, Jim served on the Elms College board of trustees from 1999 to 2009; and his sister, Maureen Sullivan ’60, just celebrated her 50th reunion from the Elms.

The Sullivans’ support of athletics was recognized through the naming of the softball dugouts in memory of his late son: The Kevin R. Sullivan Memorial Dugouts. During the dedication in April 2010, the Sullivans were delighted to meet student athletes like Tiffany Williams, and to hear about their successes on the field and in the classroom.

Ten years ago, the Sullivans’ contribution to the Direction 2000 campaign supported the building of an office in the Maguire Center, which was also dedicated in Kevin’s memory, and in memory of Jim and Maureen’s parents, Julia and Raymond Sullivan.

“Being on the softball team was a very valuable part of my Elms College experience; it taught me about sportsmanship, and service, and community,” Tiffany said. “I’m so grateful to people like the Sullivans who contributed to building the fields, which give us a competitive advantage over other teams in our conference and make it possible for us to participate.”

Ways of Giving

An Elms College education is a steppingstone for many of its graduates - to lives full of meaningful work, success, and service to others. It is an investment that yields tremendous personal dividends.

Gifts of all sizes allow us to provide the financial assistance that many of our students need to reach their academic goals, to develop innovative academic programs to respond to the demands of today's world, and to acquire and improve our human resources, facilities, and equipment.

Many of our students have access to the Elms only because of benefactors like you who support what we do and how we do it. Your gift really does make a difference here.

- Gifts of Cash
  Gifts of cash and by credit card are available for immediate use by Elms College and are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. You may choose to visit www.elms.edu/give for a direct credit card gift or call to arrange for monthly credit card deductions. Electronic fund transfer (EFT) is also possible.
- Gifts of Securities
  These gifts may include stocks, mutual funds, or bonds. Donations are credited at fair market value on the date of transfer to the college. A gift of highly appreciated securities will assist the college and at the same time may help reduce or eliminate the taxes paid by the benefactor on capital gain.
- Matching Gifts
  Many businesses and corporations match the gifts made by employees, retirees, and family members. To obtain information about your company's matching gift program, please contact your personnel office or use the Elms weblink to search for your company.
- Gifts Through Retirement Plan
  You may include Elms College as a beneficiary of your IRA.
- Gifts of Personal Property
  A gift of capital assets (art objects, rare books, equipment, etc.) can be given to the college for its educational purposes. Responsibility for appraisal rests with the benefactor. The Elms has discretion to sell or retain the items.
- Gifts of Real Estate
  Gifts of real estate can be given to the college outright or transferred to the college in a bargain sale, upon discussion, review, and approval of the transaction. Some benefactors may be eligible to contribute real estate to the college and reserve the right to occupy the property in your lifetime. Each plan has its own tax and income benefits.
- Planned Gifts
  Planned gifts are a wonderful way to support the Elms. Some types of planned gifts allow benefactors to receive income tax credits or deductions while ensuring they or loved ones receive income as well.
- Gifts by Bequest
  By naming the College of Our Lady of the Elms as a beneficiary in your will, it is possible to leave a significant legacy to the college. You may select a specific dollar amount, designate a fixed percentage of your estate, identify specific property or after relatives and friends have been provided for, leave the remainder of the estate to the college.
- Annuities and Trusts
  Gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, and charitable lead trusts are examples of life income contributions to Elms College. These gifts provide an opportunity for one to make a contribution to Elms College and at the same time increase annual income, while receiving a tax deduction, and reduced taxes on capital gain, to the extent allowed by law.
- Gifts of Life Insurance
  The college may be named as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy. It is also possible to invest in the Living Legacy program and name the college as the owner and beneficiary of the policy. Policies are affordable and allow benefactors to make a major contribution to the college.
- Gifts of Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs)
  The college may be named as the beneficiary of an IRA.
