PRESIDENT'S LETTER

The fruits of our labor are reflections of our commitment, endurance, and character. Our tireless labor over the past year has brought many blessings to College of Our Lady of the Elms, both on the campus and in the classroom. During much of the 2010-2011 year, the College community engaged in a process of identifying and defining its core values. After several months of discussion and conversations the faculty, staff, students, alumni, and trustees agreed that the four values of faith, community, justice, and excellence best expressed the deep and unchanging values of College of Our Lady of the Elms.

As you read the report for 2010-2011, I invite you to look through the lens of these values to appreciate the unique Catholic focus of our educational philosophy embedded in all we do. Through your continued support, we were able to renovate the cafeteria and campus ministry office, open a new café, game room, and computer laboratory in the Mary Dooley College Center. Students, faculty, and staff commented on the beauty of the facility, the quality of the dining services, and the convenience of the new café throughout the year.

We continue to grow beyond the Elms campus as we completed the first year of our partnership with Holyoke Community College in the bachelor's degree completion program. The success of the program resulted in two new tracks being added for the spring 2011 semester in early childhood leadership and health services administration.

As supporters and graduates of the College, you can be proud of the many diverse ways in which the values have been lived out this past year. While much has been accomplished, the most promising thought is the opportunities that lie ahead. It is your support that creates the opportunities captured in these pages, and for that I thank you. We look forward to what is yet to be achieved as we prepare future leaders who will lead lives in service to their neighbor with compassion, commitment, and love.

Sister Mary Reap, IHM

Stephen M. Chenard

Stephen M. Chenard was awarded the O'Neil Family Endowed Scholarship in both his junior and senior years. While at Elms, Steve played golf all four years and his love of the game led him to earn the Timothy J. Leary Award for demonstrating Monsignor Leary's spirit, dedication, leadership and love of athletics. Assisting with the women's basketball team earned him the Tommy Hurst Award for his dedication towards the school's athletic program.

Steve's thankfulness is what has led him to support his alma mater in many ways since leaving campus. Living in Windsor, CT, and working at The Harford after graduation, he served as an assistant coach for the women's basketball team for three years and as the assistant coach of the men's golf team for one year. He also volunteers as a class agent, attends every Homecoming, competes in the Hall of Fame golf tournament, and makes annual donations.

"I am hoping that this will encourage more young alumni to give back to Elms like I have been doing since I graduated in 2006."

John M. Flynn

John M. Flynn has the notable distinction of being named one of the first trustee emeriti of the College and one of just a few members of the St. Joseph Society, recognizing lifetime contributors of $1,000,000 or more.

John has seen the impact of his gift toward the athletic fields as it has helped Elms recruit more student athletes. Elms' 268 athletes have strong GPAs, are heavily involved in community service, and are good representatives of the College. John expects his gift to the science facilities will have a similar effect. The sciences are a core curriculum for Elms, with good teaching but outdated laboratories. The new building will change that, allowing faculty to be more innovative in their teaching methods.

"The more you get involved and know what's going on, the more you see the impact on students. Elms has a lot going for it; there are good faculty and good people, but the students are the true inspiration."

John William Bennett

People give to College of Our Lady of the Elms for numerous reasons and in varied ways. Some set up estates and some give on a monthly basis. Some have the memory of a lost loved one in mind when they give a gift while others are inspired by the continuum of fresh faces on campus. Whether a long-time supporter or making their first gift, there is a unique story behind all who give.

With a long history of support, John William Bennett's roots at Elms College are deep and indelible. John and his wife, alumna Mary Killeen Bennett '64, were married on the Elms campus in Our Lady's Chapel. For over 20 years, Mary chaired and served on the Elms College Social Work Advisory Board. She also founded the human services department at Springfield Technical Community College and chaired it for 20 years, inspiring many students and cultivating numerous future social workers. Mary retired in 1999, and passed away a year later.

John wanted to leave something behind to preserve his wife's memory and make people aware of who she was and what she had done during her life. So he established a scholarship in Mary's name. Each year the scholarship is awarded to an Elms College junior or senior student majoring in social work.

"I've had students say they couldn't have continued school without the scholarship," John stated.

In addition to the scholarship, the Social Work Advisory Board created the Mary Killeen Bennett Award, given annually to a human service worker who has demonstrated a commitment to social change and justice and to the education and training of human service workers of diverse cultures.

Along with the scholarship, John also has Elms College listed as a beneficiary on his life insurance policy.

"I want to demonstrate my continuing support and keep Elms growing."

All students registered with Disability Services graduated with their class and 16 graduated with honors, despite the national trend that students with disabilities take up to six years to graduate.

Campus Ministry raised $500 for tornado relief, $4,400 for earthquake relief for Japan, and held two successful food drives.

Trudy Laramee

Demonstrating support has always been important to Trudy Laramee, administrative assistant in the dean of students office. A seven-year employee with several different departments, she has always supported the College through the annual fund and is a member of the Living Legacy Society.

Trudy has always been drawn to the Elms. After befriending an alumna who raved about the division of education and her experience at Elms College, Trudy decided she would take any position just to get her foot in the door. After working part-time for different departments, she became secretary for the dean of students three years ago.

"We have fantastic faculty and staff members; their priority is to be there for the students which I adore," Trudy proclaimed. "I have had the pleasure to work with some of the most brilliant, caring people over the years who don't think twice to go out of their way to assist and help the students or a fellow co-worker."

Trudy's true joy, however, is the students. "I find the transformation of our students remarkable; entering as wide-eyed, excited and a bit naïve freshmen. And by the time they leave, they have become confident, educated young men and women ready to take on the world."

She feels like a proud parent when she watches the students receive their degrees at commencement and encourages them to stop by her office to reminisce. Trudy can often be found in her office with recent graduates who visit to exchange hugs and pleasantries. They serve as a constant reminder to her as to why she supports Elms College.

"There is always a warm smile, a wave, and a genuine camaraderie amongst many of the Elms College community. This is the true spirit of Elms and I am glad to be a part of it."

Body Politics, a UMASS-Amherst group of women of color, performed a program that spoke to the issues faced by young women of color.

Ninety-three percent of the candidates in the division of education have full-time teaching jobs, or are enrolled in graduate school, and one is working as an admission counselor at Elms.

Spaulding House, our admission office, received interior renovations, exterior painting and landscaping.

LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Dear Friend of Elms College,

On behalf of the board of trustees, I am pleased to present this 2010 – 2011 annual report.

With the support and vision of our dedicated trustees, and the leadership of Mary Reap, IHM, Ph.D., it has been a year of many accomplishments. From identifying our core values, developing new academic programs and growing our student enrollment, we continue to ensure that each student has the opportunity to have a rich and rewarding experience while at the Elms.

The contributions from our alumni and friends of College of Our Lady of the Elms enabled us to improve our campus facilities for the enjoyment of the entire Elms community. O'Leary Hall, Spaulding House and the dining hall in the Mary Dooley College Center were renovated and a reflection pond was installed in front of Our Lady's Chapel.

This past May we graduated a class of 343 men and women with students who came to the College from as far away as Bolivia and Zambia. We sponsor several domestic and international service trips, recruit talented athletes to our 15 sports teams, and maintain our standards of academic excellence as we strive to educate our students in mind, body and spirit.

As chair of the board of trustees and an alumna of the Elms, I want to express my sincere gratitude for your support. It is because of your contributions and your belief in the value of the work we do that the College can continue to educate reflective, principled and creative learners in the tradition of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Sincerely,

Linda K.C. Mansfield '77

Honorary and Memorial Gifts Many Elms

benefactors choose to make gifts throughout the year in memory of loved family members and friends. Others choose to honor people meaningful in their lives such as former teachers, parents, classmates, children, friends, or family. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of those benefactors in choosing to recognize their loved ones in this way.

Ways of Giving

An Elms College education is a steppingstone for many of its graduates - to lives full of meaningful work, success, and service to others. It is an investment that yields tremendous personal dividends.

Gifts of all sizes allow us to provide the financial assistance that many of our students need to reach their academic goals, to develop innovative academic programs to respond to the demands of today's world, and to acquire and improve our human resources, facilities, and equipment.

Many of our students have access to the Elms only because of benefactors like you who support what we do and how we do it. Your gift really does make a difference here.

Gifts of Cash

Gifts of cash and credit card are available for immediate use by Elms College and are tax deductible. You may choose to visit www.elms.edu/give for a direct credit card gift or call to arrange for monthly credit card deductions. Electronic fund transfer (EFT) is also possible.

Gifts of Securities

These gifts may include stocks, mutual funds or bonds. Donations are credited at fair market value on the date of transfer to the college. A gift of highly appreciated securities will assist the college and at the same time reduce or eliminate the taxes paid on capital gain.

Matching Gifts

Many businesses and corporations match the gifts made by employees, retirees, and family members. To obtain information about your company's matching gift program, please contact your personnel office or use the Elms weblink to search for your company.

Gifts through Retirement Plan

You may include Elms College as a beneficiary of your IRA.

Gifts of Personal Property

A gift of capital assets (art objects, rare books, equipment, etc.) can be given to the college for its educational purposes. Responsibility for appraisal rests with the benefactor. The Elms has discretion to sell or retain the items.

Gifts of Real Estate

Gifts of real estate can be given to the college outright or transferred to the college in a bargain sale, upon discussion, review and approval of the transaction. Some benefactors may be eligible to contribute real estate to the college and reserve the right to occupy the property in your lifetime. Each plan has its own tax and income benefits.

Planned Gifts

Planned Gifts are a wonderful way to support the Elms. Some types of planned gifts allow benefactors to receive income tax credits or deductions while ensuring they or loved ones receive income as well.

Gifts by Bequest

By naming the College of Our Lady of the Elms as a beneficiary in your will, it is possible to leave a significant legacy to the college. You may select a specific dollar amount, designate a fixed percentage of your estate, identify specific property or after relatives and friends have been provided for, leave the remainder of the estate to the college.

Annuities and Trusts

Gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, and charitable lead trusts are examples of life income contributions to Elms College. These gifts provide an opportunity for one to make a contribution to Elms College and at the same time increase annual income, receive a tax deduction and reduce taxes on capital gain.

Gifts of Life Insurance

The college may be named as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy. It is also possible to invest in the Living Legacy program and name the college as the owner and beneficiary of the policy. Policies are affordable and allow benefactors to make a major contribution to the college.

Gifts of Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs)

The college may be named as the beneficiary of an IRA.

For further information regarding gifts to Elms College, please contact the Office of Institutional Advancement at (413) 594-6123 or visit www.elms.edu/plannedgift.

Matching Gifts

Many companies have matching gift programs that can double or triple the value of your gift to the college. We are grateful for the generosity and corporate social responsibility expressed by these companies and organizations that match gifts from their employees and retirees to the College of Our Lady of the Elms. The college also thanks those individuals whose gifts led to the additional support from their employers. These matches were paid between July 1, 2010-June 30, 2011. If you feel that your name should be included, please contact the Institutional Advancement Office at (413) 594-6123 regarding the timing of your company's matching gift payment.
